ST. OLAF COLLEGE SERVES AS WEBSITE HOST

The ASIANetwork website <www.asianetwork.org> first made its appearance in the spring of 1998 through the generous support of a three-year grant from The Henry Luce Foundation and of St. Olaf College.

Several St. Olaf College colleagues have been instrumental in the success of this increasingly important conduit for disseminating information about the organization. Craig Rice, Educational Technologies and Networking Consultant, Academic Computing Center, and Pin Wan, Chinese Language and Literature, the 1998-1999 academic editor of the website, have created a HomePage that is informative, attractive, and readily accessible. Richard Bodman, Chinese Language and Literature, is the 1999-2000 academic editor.

The ASIANetwork thanks Pin Wan and Craig Rice for their contributions during the setting up of the website and throughout its first year of operation. We welcome Dick Bodman as the incoming academic editor, and look forward to continuing to work with Craig Rice.

THE ASIANetwork EXCHANGE

The ASIANetwork Exchange has been produced at Colorado College with the volunteer assistance of Robert McJimsey, History, Colorado College, who over the seven and one-half years of the newsletter's publication at this site, mastered ever more sophisticated desktop publishing programs. Sandra Papuga, History Department Staff Assistant, Colorado College and part-time ASIANetwork Secretary, kept the newsletter mailing lists up-to-date. Kim Biondi and Jeri Scott, Colorado College Print Shop Coordinators, advised the Editor and printed the nineteen issues; Barb Gelner and Joni Brandner, Colorado College Postal Coordinators, mailed the newsletters in a timely fashion. Yuchien Chen, a computer scientist with MCI Communications, Inc., designed the masthead calligraphy of The ASIANetwork Exchange. The Editor thanks these people as well as Kathryn Mohrman, President, Colorado College, and the members of the Colorado College Asian Studies faculty for their sustained interest in and support of the publication of The ASIANetwork Exchange.

The Editor also wishes to thank the members of the ASIANetwork who contributed the variety of articles and the information for the compilation of articles listed in the following cumulative index. A perusal of the index reveals the scholarship, curiosity, substantive innovation, energy, and inspired teaching in Asian Studies that our members embody. The newsletter is one of the active conduits for communicating the wide variety of conversations about teaching about Asia characteristic of the ASIANetwork.
