Assistant Editor 2000-2002
The ASIANetwork EXCHANGE* Editor 2002-2005

It has been my privilege and pleasure to act as your Editor of The ASIANetwork EXCHANGE for the past three and a half years. I was invited to join Anne Prescott and Ben Nefzger as an Assistant Editor in 2000, the second year the EXCHANGE was housed at Augustana. By that date Anne and Ben were quite up-to-speed on how to produce a newsletter and my job primarily entailed proofing and soliciting copy. Anne had done almost all of the set-up work: developing the new “look” for the newsletter, organizing departments for materials, settling on fonts and formatting styles, and all the rest. We were very fortunate that Anne had had past experience in editing before coming to Augustana.

When, in 2002, Anne left Augustana to work at Indiana University and Ben Nefzger retired from the college, I, by attrition, became Editor! Much of my late summer experience revolved around learning Page-maker, Photoshop, and other aspects of the position like soliciting copy. With great relief and rejoicing on my part, Anne was willing to stay on as an assistant editor. I could always email or call if I needed her expert advice (which I shamelessly took advantage of). She also introduced me to Gary Poskin at Pinney Press, who has been a wonderful support for us. Later in my first year of Editorship, Nirmala Salgado joined us. I especially want to offer my thanks to both Anne and Nirmala. They always come through with excellent editing skills, often in an extremely tight time frame.

I have enjoyed working for Van Symons, Executive Director. Whenever I have a question, he always has the answer, no matter how beleaguered or frenzied he might be at the moment. Thanks, as well, to each of the Board Chairs that served while I was Editor: Jim Leavell, Paul Watt, and Joan O’Mara. You always got great copy in to me and always on time! Thanks also to Diane Clayton who maintains the website. She posts copies of each newsletter one year after it is published, in case someone needs to find an article in a back-issue. I also wish to thank all of the conference photographers over the years, including Diane Clayton, Jim Leavell, Chia Ning, and Anne Prescott. Of course, I wish to give a special thanks to Teddy Amolozza, incoming Executive Director, who annually provides photos from ASIANetwork Freeman Student Faculty Fellows reports, and has often, on short notice, provided a written up-date on the status of the program. Every one of you has provided incredible degrees of support in maintaining ongoing quality of the newsletter.

Working on the newsletter has been a growing experience for me in a number of ways. As many others have said in this issue, for me, the most wonderful facet of this position is that I have the opportunity to meet so many wonderful, interesting, and talented Asian scholars. Whether I have met you at conferences as I try to solicit copy for next year’s issue, or by email—again soliciting copy or asking for clarification, or by telephone, I am constantly reminded of what a strong and lively consortium this is.

The EXCHANGE sometimes comes to light in my other Asian-related roles. For example, as National Consortium for Teaching About Asia Seminar coordinator under the Teaching East Asia Program in Colorado, I have attended NCTA meetings where program directors such as Lynn Parisi, Kathleen Woods Masalski, Roberta H. Martin, Mary Hammond Bernson and Jacques Fuqua have at varying times all mentioned articles or information they have read in the EXCHANGE.

As someone who was not an “Asianist” in my graduate work, the newsletter has allowed me the opportunity to grow more broadly in my expertise on Asia. Editing articles on Korea or India, or in the fields of Literature, Religion or Economics, has enhanced my understanding in a variety of ways. By reading your work, attending your sessions, talking with you during meals or on field trips or after sessions, I continue to learn. As I turn over editorship to those at Illinois Wesleyan, I am excited about my continued involvement in ASIANetwork and Asian Studies—whether by offering a new class on China, presenting a paper at the upcoming ASIANetwork conference, or by working this summer as one of the faculty selected for the Pearl River Delta Faculty Development program. My life, both as a teacher and a scholar, has been enriched greatly by this experience.
